Case citation is a system used by legal professionals to identify past court case decisions, either in series of books called reporters or law reports, or in a neutral style that identifies a decision regardless of where it is reported. Case citations are formatted differently in different jurisdictions, but generally contain the same key information.. A legal citation is a "reference to a ...

Case citation - Wikipedia

Legal citators are valuable tools that list primary and secondary sources that have cited a particular document, e.g., a judicial opinion. Citators help you determine the status of a law, e.g., whether a case is still "good law" (that it has not been overruled by another decision), or whether a statute has been found unconstitutional.
