The Octavo was a book that contained the eight spells which the Creator used to create the Discworld, it was left behind when he finished. The book is located in a specially sealed room in the basement of the Unseen University's library chained to a lectern, for safety of the browsers, not the book.

The Octavo, named after a book size and the in-Universe magical power of the number eight, features prominently in the Colour of Magic / Light Fantastic pair of novels. It is described as the Creator's own grimoire, left behind shortly after the Creator completed Creation, and thus the most powerful book of magic on the Discworld.
